12, 2023, the Magistrate Judge issued an order for the Parties to participate in a Settlement Conference on October 18, 2023.

The Parties to this case had previously discussed and were in the process of scheduling a private mediation, and have now scheduled a mediation with Hon. Judge Jackie Glass (ret.) to occur on November 8, 2023. The Parties jointly believe that the private mediation setting will afford the best opportunity to resolve their dispute at this stage of the case. The Parties therefore respectfully request that the Court permit the Parties to pursue that alternative dispute resolution method as an alternative to the judicial settlement conference.¹

Additionally, the Parties note that the present date set for the Settlement Conference coincides with a long-scheduled vacation for Defendants' lead trial counsel Doug Northup during the week of October 14. Mr. Northup will be a necessary participant at any conference or mediation.

The Parties are grateful for the Court's and the Magistrate Judge's efforts to assist them in resolving this matter. The Parties represent that this request is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. Based on the foregoing, the Parties respectfully request the issuance of an order:

- Vacating the Magistrate Judge Settlement Conference currently scheduled for October 18, 2023, as well as the other dates set forth in the Magistrate Judge's September 12, 2023 Order Setting Settlement Conference (ECF No. 123);
- 2. Permitting the Parties to pursue private mediation as an alternative to a judicial settlement conference;
- 3. Directing the Parties to provide an update on the status of scheduling private mediation within five (5) court days of the date of issuance of the order; and
- 4. Confirming that the order does not result in any stay or tolling and that all other case deadlines remain in effect.

¹ See LR 16-5: "The court may set any appropriate civil case for settlement conference or other alternative method of dispute resolution..." (emphasis added)
